Did you know...We now have a school back in the Mills community! The Mills Elementary School was closed in 2016 and the Mountain View Elementary School was closed in 2018 which was the last school in Mills.

Wyoming Classical Academy, a new charter school, began their first classes on August 28. Watch out for the kiddos as they begin a new school year and as we celebrate the re-opening of a school in the City of Mills!
